

LION & THE LAMB

Say you wanna stay and I will play another song

Move toward the mic and if you like just sing along

Sing I am here, come take my hand

Lead me to the Promised Land

Here I stand with all i am

Lay me down with the Lion & the Lamb

Cos if my heart would fail me now, I won't go out in vain

My weakest is my finest hour as love undoes the pain

I would not have left unsaid the things of love when i am dead

I would share my deepest dreams where my hearts bursting at the

Seems slow, but don't stop growing

Now's the time for knowing

Where your heart's decided

There's no time to be divided (Repeat)

Here I stand with all I am

Lay me down with the Lion & the Lamb
