

FIRE LILY

Daughter I am here don't you forget
Right here by your side and I won't let you fall down
Hear me whisper softly in your ear
Joy comes in the morning I will wipe away every tear

Darling I have come that they might see
As the fire burns around us see me down on bended knee, and I have Seen you on your knees within the fire
You are to me as gold and I have come to take you higher

Sweet, is my love for you, I adore you
Rise and shine, your light has come
I am the one I am

Sweetheart, I am singing over you
Your smile's a silver lining and your tears have turned to dew, and I have
Promised you a stream that overflows
My joy has always been your strength
In you my power shows

Sweet, is my love for you, I adore you
Rise and shine, your light has come
I am the one I am...I am the one I am...I am the one I...

Daughter I am here don't you forget
Right here by your side and I won't let you fall down
Hear me whisper softly in your ear
Joy comes in the morning I will wipe away every tear
